

PRESS RELEASE

Student passes all CPCU exams

February 8, 2016

Temple University's Department of Risk, Insurance, and Healthcare Management and Gamma Iota Sigma's Sigma Chapter are excited to congratulate Hayley Leather on finishing her Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) exams. While at Temple, Ms. Leather majored in Risk Management and Insurance major and was an active member of Gamma Iota Sigma. She began taking CPCU exams during Summer 2014, and passed her final exam in September 2015. Ms. Leather joins a small group of Temple students to receive credit for all of eight of the CPCU exams before graduating. Ms. Leather graduated in December 2015 with her Bachelor's of Business Administration with a concentration in Risk Management and Insurance.

CPCU is one of the most widely recognized and respected designations in the property casualty field. This designation distinguishes the holders from their peers and indicates a commitment to the industry. Moreover, employers and industry professionals know that CPCU designees possess an in-depth knowledge about the property casualty industry.

Hayley Leather

Contact Information:

Brenna Horan

Vice President of Communications

Gamma Iota Sigma, Sigma Chapter

Brenna.horan@temple.edu