Towers Perrin's Health and Welfare services help clients address the full range of health and welfare issues and programs — from health care and retiree medical, disability and dental to life insurance, behavioral health, managed pharmacy and flexible benefits

FEATURED SUMMER NTERN

JOHN SCADUTO

Year: Senior
Major(s): Marketing and Risk Management
Company: Travelers Insurance
Location: Philadelphia
Position: Underwriting Intern

Description: Helped manage renewals of select accounts and update loss materials of clients.

Pros: Seeing how some of the top players in the industry bring in and maintains business, communicates with brokers and clients, and identifies acceptable risks to insure.

Advice: If you want to work in the insurance industry, get an internship because without one it's much harder to get your foot in the door.

Where did you get this internship? I got my internship through GIS

THE ROAD TO THE RESUME BOOK

Actuarial Science majors are gearing up for their chance in the internship gauntlet. Risk Management students, your time is fast approaching! The Intern Reception for RMI students is Friday, March 22nd, 2002, and will be held in the Great Court at Mitten Hall from 1:00—4:00PM.

To be sure your resume gets in the world-class resume book, fill out the online worksheet at: www.temple.edu/gis as soon as possible.

The resume submission deadline for RMI majors this semester is February 15th.

Also, the deadline for dues payment, applicable to all members, is February 28th.

There are only two Interview Workshops being held this semester, so if you have not completed one in any academic year, make sure you attend one of the following sessions.

Monday, February 11, 1:40 — 4:30PM
Thursday, February 21, 2:00 — 5:00PM

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

MOCK INTERVIEWS

Jamie Germano has stepped down as our resident mock-interviewer, effective last semester. So mocks in the future may be a bit different than you expect.

Mock Interviews, which are required each year for all students participating in career receptions, are being held on the following days:

Friday, Feb. 8, 10-5 and Saturday, Feb. 9, 10-5

Our newest Mock Interviewer is Kimberly Neubauer, Training Director at The Franklin Institute for the past five years. She is also a member of the Philadelphia Human Resource Planning Group, as Managing Director for the Outreach Program, which assists High School students in interview preparation. The interview is still for an underwriting position at AIG for RMI majors. Actuarial majors will interview for an Actuarial Associate position. So familiarize yourself with the company, and the latest trends in the P&C industry.

Consult your Spring 2002 Handbook, or contact Michelle Henry <mmhenry@temple.edu> to sign up now. The early bird gets the worm!!!

COMMITTEE KICK-OFF

Hopefully you all attended the meeting last week and were able to sign up for the committee of your choice. At the right you will see the complete list of committees along with when and where they meet.

If you have not signed up for a committee yet, I urge you to match your schedule to the times at the right and get involved!

REMEMBER: The RMI100 course only requires that you attend the weekly meetings and a bi-weekly committee meeting. Boost your GPA with a guaranteed one-credit 'A.'
