

FEATURED COMMITTEE PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Public Relations Committee is designed to foster relations between Gamma Iota Sigma, the Fox School of Business and Temple University. This involves promoting GIS activities at all University wide events, in which members will get chance to represent the chapter.

This year the committee has been working on new projects for GIS including packages to welcome new members, and different mailings to strengthen communication with other organizations.

In addition to the numerous open houses and telemarketing activities, this committee's primary responsibility is the successful execution of the Sigma Chapter's Annual Dinner. This event will take place on April, 15, 2000 at the Holiday Inn at 4th and Arch Street.
