SIGMA CHAPTER BRINGS HOME THE BOWERS AGAIN!!!

The Sigma Chapter has done it again and brought home the prestigious Edison L. Bowers Award for the fifth year in a row. The Bowers Award was created to recognize the one Chapter of Gamma Iota Sigma that demonstrates an exceptional, well-rounded and organized program each academic school year. The Bowers Award takes into account public relations, industry relations, alumni affairs, and other chapter activities. This award is the highest honor that a chapter can receive from the Grand Chapter of Gamma Iota Sigma and the Sigma Chapter has brought it home to Temple ten of the last twelve years. Congratulations Sigma Chapter!!!

H. WAYNE SNIDER DISTINGUISHED GUEST LECTURER SERIES

CHARLIE LEDBETTER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & NATIONAL PRACTICE LEADER

MARSH USA, INC.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20TH AT 11:40

WALK AUDITORIUM

Charles C. Ledbetter is a Senior Vice President and National Practice Leader of Retirement Plan Consulting for Marsh USA, Inc. He is a specialist in pension consulting, investing and compliance for Marsh's Employee Benefit Services and Marsh Advantage America. Charlie heads the development, sales and marketing, and overall consulting operations for Marsh. Part of his duties include keeping abreast of changing rules and regulations for the pension and 401(k) industry, recognizing changing trends in technology, service and investment options for pension plans and the coordination of Marsh's Retirement Plan Consultants nationwide.

Prior to joining Marsh USA, Charlie spent six years with Putnam Investments, one of the largest providers of pension investment and recordkeeping services in the U. S. During his career he also worked with the pension divisions of two major life insurance companies. Charlie is an attorney with twelve years experience as a practicing lawyer in the Denver, Colorado metropolitan area. Beginning his financial service career in 1984, he joined a New York-based investment advisory firm specializing in trusts, pension and large account investment services.

Charlie received his BA from Baylor University and his JD from the University of Denver, College of Law. Charlie is a frequent guest speaker for corporate offices and civic clubs. During his financial service career he has conducted pension plan reviews with Boards of Directors and Trustees, enrollment meetings, educational meetings, and consulting sessions for major corporate clients. He has thirty years of legal, corporate, marketing, and educational experience with pension plans and their inner workings.

RECAP OF THE GIS 33RD ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

The 2003-2004 Edison L. Bowers Award was presented this past weekend at the GIS International Management Conference held in London, Ontario. The conference spans two days—one day for industry relations and one day for inter-chapter relations. This year, the conference was attended by several companies, including Amerisure, ING, Marsh, Palmer & Cay, Towers Perrin, and St. Paul Travelers.

Along with the Bowers Award, the Sigma Chapter was honored with the following awards this year:

Black & Gold Award—“Business School-Wide Community Service Event”

Black & Gold Award—“Professional Designation Subcommittee”

Alumni Relations Award

Chapter Management Award

Membership Development Award

Public Relations Award

Two of our officers were awarded scholarships at the conference as well. Cindy Li was the recipient of the Elizabeth Lange/Microsoft Scholarship in honor of her exemplary personal character and fraternal, family, and community contributions. Noelle Salamone was the recipient of the Warren L. Weeks Scholarship in honor of her leadership and service towards furthering fraternal goals.

Lastly, the Sigma Chapter is pleased to announce that our own President, Noelle Salamone, has been elected to the position of International Student Representative. Noelle will act as a liaison between all GIS chapters and the Executive Board and provide a student voice for the organization.
