Risk Management Intern Presentations

Friday, March 21, 2008

Student Center 200B

11:40am-12:30pm

When considering various internships offers, it is important to get the facts from a third-party in addition to the company's information. Students will discuss their responsibilities as interns, the perks and drawbacks of the intern programs, and how they got their internships followed by an evaluation of their overall experience. This week, Holly Wendszel (ACE INA), Kim Armbrecht (Marsh, San Francisco), and (someone) will discuss their experiences at their respective companies. Free pizza and soda will be at hand for your consumption

Philabundance (RMI Community Service Event #2)

Tuesday, March 22, 2008

7:00-9:00pm

Philabundance was founded in 1984 to help fight hunger in the Delaware Valley while reducing food waste. Concentrating its efforts on perishable foods, Philabundance has developed a food distribution system that includes direct delivery and local hubs. Gamma will be joining forces with Philabundance to package and/or sort canned goods for senior citizens that are in need of food. As a reminder, those members that are currently enrolled in RMI 3682 through our program must attend at least one of our community service events, and this is one possibility. Please sign up as soon as possible, as slots are limited. Sign-up sheets will be taped to the front door of the Gamma Iota Sigma office (4th floor of Ritter Annex).
